“ Uncle Earl,

You slept away that morning, without a backward glance, I didn't know that moment was going to be my last time to talk with you. The last time I would kiss your forehead and say ?see you later alligator.?

You will always hold a special place in my heart. I know that one day we will see each other in heaven and that alone give me peace and comfort.

The years will stretch on before me, so bleak, dark and long, I pray you walk beside me, and help to keep me strong.

The wind that whispers through the trees, the brightest star at night, a rainbow on a dismal day, a shaft of golden light, All these are signs you send to me, a message from above, that even death can't break the bonds that we hold.

*Rest on Uncle Earl your time is now.
I'll miss you!*

Love Your Niece, Bobbi.
