We will remember Earline's humor and her ability to make you laugh. Losing a loved one is never easy to accept, and a mother should never have to witness the loss of her child. *To the Allens and Bentlys:
Our deepest regrets for your loss and pain. There are so many happy memories from the time we shared on 14th and Janes Street and even the days beyond. I remember one day Earline told me to be the lookout while she stole candy for the both of us from Ms. Matryce, she was so busy eating it she didn't hear my signal. I ran out the front door, but not before I seen her get punched in the back. We laughed hard about that one, after we argued about whose fault it was. I remember our families playing, eating, sharing, and even crying together. I count those memories as blessings.
Please know that God will provide you with all the peace and comfort you need, just know that He is in control.
From your family: the Peoples and Dugans*

“ My deepest and sincere sympathy are with the Allen and Bentley family. When we were growing up on 5th street we had some of the greatest times together I can remember her always singing she had a beautiful voice. I can remember her cousin Tommie taking us to school and my dad coming back to give us a ride home. My dad would call her that talking girl she would always lose her voice he loved to talk about her. She will definitely be miss but never forgotten.
