Pastor... I pray that you are finally at peace, resting next to your beautiful wife. I know, you were looking forward to those pearly gates of heaven. I am so sorry that you left without goodbyes but you were ready to take those stairs to heaven. May you rest in God's kingdom! Thank you for teaching me the word of God, it has help me tremendously! I should not have waited until tomorrow because the Lord said it is not promised.

Just like soccer, you have to kick. He and Missionary Kishna Erma Brown taught us how to get the devil out of our lives and stomp the devil under our feet in the name of Jesus. They had a Deliverance Ministry. Praise God, for fasting, praying, hope and faith. That gift and experience is still being used and shared. I'm grateful.

Pastor Brown and the Late Missionary Kishna Erma (Scott) Brown ,his wife shared, travel and taught us the good news (gospel). Yes, we swallow that 🍬, giving us knowledge,wisdom & understanding. We listen and took notes,tests and ask questions, so we could share it with someone else in 💕 who crossed our path or by Devine appointment holy spirit in talking about weather, at the doctor's appointment, at the grocery store,etc. Grateful for Minister Joseph Brown Sr and Deaconess Martha (Marti) and others who took care of him, visited, called, include: other relatives , Churches &,Neighbors, friends and those who he fellowship with in Saginaw, Detroit area- Bishops, Pastors, Associate Pastors, Deacons or came to Love Center. The Love Center Mass Choir , Praise

Being grateful for the learning, listening and life experiences shared at Love Center. I will cherish those memories from the heart. I know that the light and torch has been passed down in the family and their legacy will continue to live on & will ☐ grow. They touch the lives of others including mine. I will never forget that. May God bless you richly as only he can.
