“ Although I didn't know Edith, I wish to send your family my deepest condolences. I know it is very hard to lose someone you love in death. There's something that has always brought me comfort that I wanted to share with you.

The question people wonder when they lose someone is will I ever be able to see them again? The reassuring answer is yes. The Bible promises at Acts 24:15 that there will be a "resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous." John 5:28, 29 says that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, soon you will have a chance to be reunited with Edith. What an exciting time that will be!

That time will take place right here on earth, for 1 Peter 3:13 talks about a "new earth we are awaiting according to his promise." Under that new earth death will be "swallowed up forever." (Isaiah 25:8) May you find much comfort in the Bible's promises. My thoughts and prayers are with your family in your time of loss.

“ Dear Donald Family and Friends, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.

“ To the Entire Donald Family, I have only fond memories of getting in the car with Mr. Marcel and he would drive Gwen, Barb, Niece and myself over to the house and it would be a time of laughter and family love with "Brick, Paul, Edie, Merk and Pumpkin."

Edie will always live on for she will be in the hearts of you all and those of us friends who shared in her life. May God continue to give you strength and I will keep you all in my prayers.

“ KISHNA JOHNSON sent a virtual gift in memory of Edith Donald

KISHNA JOHNSON - October 10, 2013 at 10:47 AM

One morning she woke up different. One with trying to figure out who was with her against her, or walking down the middle because they didn't have the gear to pick a side. She was done with anything that didn't bring her peace. She realized that opinions were a dime a dozen, validation was for prying, and finally heard a word, her a lifestyle. It was this day that her life changed.
And not because of a man, or a job, but because she realized that life is way too short to leave the key to your happiness in someone else's pocket.
