“ Edna and I enjoyed many meals at Cracker Barrel and great conversations. I have a good picture that we took together when Vivian, she and I attended an event at SVSU. She was especially grateful and happy about joining the teaching team of our beloved Monday night Bible Class at Truevine. I relocated after my husband died in 2011. As a result, I have not seen Edna many times since; but I will always thank God and give Him praise for our friendship and conversations. She was a great and gentle lady who loved her children very much. May the peace of God and the precious memory of their mother always remain with them. With my deepest sympathy, Florene Cook Burks

“ Dear Family, I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. In our time of need, we can find true comfort by turning to God's word the Bible. Psalms 46:1...encourages God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during difficult times. And may the "peace of God that excels all thoughts" be with your family. (Phil. 4:7)
