Elly thanks for your condolences but you know how it is when people die and they family is grieving. My dad family was shock that he passed and also a lot of his family was left out the obituary like his other grandchildren (my son and my brother other daughter) his god children was left out. So please don't talk out how sad it was because y'all was left out the obituary. We didn't want to have a long obituary my family is big. It cost for every letter or word. I didn't get mad because my deceased son was left out of the obituary and my brother wasn't mad because his deceased daughter was left out the obituary so
