

Eliza Shethi

June 24, 1943 - December 28, 2009

June 24, 1943 ~ December 28, 2009 Mrs. Eliza Myrle Shethi was born to Gladys and Matthew Simpson in Savu Savu, Fiji Islands. At the age of twelve, she moved to Suva, capital city of Fiji, and got her high school diploma at Suva Grammar. When she was eighteen, she worked at Fiji Broadcasting Commission. Later she moved to Sydney, Australia where she received her nursing certificates in General Nursing, Mid-wifery and Psychology. She then became a recreational officer at Prince Alfred Hospital in Cannel Park. At the age of twenty-seven, she immigrated to the United States of America and resided in San Francisco, where she met and married her husband, Shatish Shethi. During the past thirty-five years, they engaged in various business ventures which led them from San Francisco, California to Portland, Oregon, to Hannibal, Missouri, to Lincoln, Nebraska, to Chicago, Illinois and finally, her resting place of Saginaw, Michigan. She is survived by her husband, Shatish; son, Graeme; grandchildren, Satish, Eliza and Matthew; brother, William and sisters, Charlene, Leona and Grace, along with their children. Funeral service will take place at 3:00 p.m. Wednesday, December 30, 2009 at the Browne's Mortuary, 441 North Jefferson Avenue. There will be no visitation prior to the service.
