

Mrs. Ellen Jane Flowers

December 8, 1936 - March 25, 2025

Ellen Jane Haire born December 8, 1936 to Jeff and Callie Haire in Muskegon, Michigan. Her mother died when she was only three years old. Ellen's dad, Jeff, worked for the Teamsters in the plant. Ellen graduated with honors at Northern High School in Detroit, Michigan. Her father married Eleanor Haire, and they had two sons, Elmore and Wayne Haire. Ellen met Robert Flowers, and then moved to Saginaw, Michigan where they were married and had five children, Robert, Jeff, Kim, Ellery, and Russell. She and Robert eventually separated leaving Ellen raised her five children on her own. It was hard, but she did it.

Later Ellen and her children moved to Detroit in the 1960 for a while, but then later moved back to Saginaw where Ellen graduated from nursing school. She started working for Dr. John Carter. Ellen went on to work for decades in Michigan before moving to Tampa, Florida in 2004. While in Tampa, her grandchildren, who loved her so much, would later follow her to Florida. She worked at one nursing home for ten years in Tampa until retiring at 80 years old. Ellen didn't want to retire, however her family ask her to and she finally agreed it was time. She then moved to Montgomery, Alabama in 2021 and have been there ever since. Ellen was called home March 25, 2025, shortly after being diagnosed with cancer.
