“ Hey grandma we didn't have much time together as I got older but I do remember those times as a child. I think about our talk in the hospital a few days before your home going how you told me " If I never told you before I am telling you now how proud I am on how the person you turned out to be." No I never heard you say words like that to me and I never once recalled you saying I love you ,but you do tell me that and I do have something from you that no one could fuss or fight over something that you gave me personally I love you and I miss you

“ What a wonderful Christian lady! We will all miss our sister- Mrs. Ellen Jones: her special smile, her friendly welcome at the door for newcomers, her encouragement for the sick and those going through hard times. Ellen, we will miss you, but heaven is much richer now that you're with our Lord.

*In Christ's love,
