

Emma Harris-Williams

May 11, 1935 - October 10, 2009

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, October 21, 2009 at Browne's Mortuary, 441 N. Jefferson Ave., followed by interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home on Wednesday from 9:00 a.m. until time of service. Our mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and sister, Emma Lou Harris (Williams) went home to be with our Father Saturday, October 10, 2009 due to a long-term illness. She was a very caring and loving person who loved her movies, bingo, spending time with her family talking and laughing with the most beautiful smile that would brighten up your day on any occasion...However never to forget, she will always tell it like it is. Mrs. Emma Lou Harris Williams born May 11, 1935 in Columbiana, AL to Gertrude and Roosevelt Harris. They moved to Cleveland, OH where she was raised. She married Walter Williams and they moved to Saginaw, MI. She leaves to cherish all the loving memories, two daughters, Beverly (Lee Grant) Austin and Karen (Gregory Parham) Williams, all of Saginaw, MI; three sons, Dwayne (Fonda) Williams, Lansing, MI, Walter (Susan Taylor) Williams, Cleveland, OH and Bruce (Jean) Williams, Saginaw, MI; 19 grandchildren, Trina Williams, Arlene Carter, Larry Austin, Lisa Grant, Lakesha Grant, Dwayne Williams, Jr., Keith Williams, Krystal Williams, Amanda Brewer, Louveina Taylor, Shamika Johnson, Grady Holmes, Derrick (Gloria) Williams, Carla Williams, Catherine Williams, Ashley Williams, Denzel Washington, Quavon Crawford and Monesha Crawford; one brother, Carl Harris, Saginaw, MI and a host of great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends. Mrs.

Williams was preceded in death by her mother and father; daughter, Yvette Russell; brother, Johnny Harris; and great-grandson, Leroy Brooks.

Tribute Wall

“ I miss you alot i know you was my great-grandma but unlike most kids i got to enjoy you while you was here and i remember when i would come to vist you i never wanted to leave we just used to talk and watch movies together :-) i love you and i still cry sometimes

Brianna Williams - November 01, 2012 at 01:11 PM

BM

“ MY prayers are with the Williams family. We was neighbor back in the day's I play with her kid's everyday.

Bertna Martin - October 10, 2009 at 12:00 AM