“ Lord, this is another tough one for me; Thank you for giving me this precious sister and all the great times you allowed us to have together over the years. I am already missing her and the hurt I feel is almost unbearable, but I know I serve an awesome God and You will see us through this one too; This too shall pass! "Ernie Fox" as I called her, would give anyone the shirt off her back-such a giving person. Lord please wrap your loving arms around her other half, George and give him the strength to endure this, along with her children and connecting families; they need You more than ever now; Thank you for this precious time you shared Ernestine with us!
