“ Truly a jewel., Mrs. Ford will truly be missed. I had the plesure of being a student, and sharing time with her as she spent sometime helping out, being a boss and just all zround get out of the house time zt Arties Flowers. She would joke around and keep me laughing with her sence of humor. I had much respect for this Queen. Continue to wear your crown Queen. Rest peacefully.

“ To the Family of Mrs. Ernestine Hardy-Ford:

You all are in my thoughts and prayers. I had Mrs. Hardy-Ford at Central Jr. High as an instructor and I also worked with her in the attendance office before she became Principal. She would refer to her students as her "Suga Pies" and would give you a stern talking to when needed, LOL you would only need one.

She was an AWESOME woman, one of few that I had the utmost respect for and looked up to.

Take your REST Mrs. Ernestine Hardy-Ford, you have run the race and left your mark on the hearts of many students who were blessed to be taught by you.

May the family find strength and peace from the Grace and Mercy of the Heavenly Father.

“ Ms. Hardy was a great teacher and person I use to go to her class room and get a seat in the back, the class was home economics for girls when she started class she would fine me and put me out then say if you do it again I'm going to turn you in to the principal, but she be laughing at me trying to talk to the girls.

“ I'm Saddened by the Loss of Mrs. Ford 😞 She was Truly a Great Lady/Principal! Very Stern in her beliefs That We All could be anything we wanted to be, Education was so important to her and she made sure anyone wanted it could have it! We need more Role Models such as She ❤️ Rest Well in Heaven 💜

“ My sincere condolences to the Family of Ernestine Ford (Hardy), This beautiful woman was well liked and I enjoyed her presence. She would come to lunch and you had to make sure that you had a hot dog for her. SHE WILL BE TRULY MISSED.
