“ Mrs. Browning
I am sorry to hear of the loss of your son. i didn't know him but I know he had to have been a good person because he was your son. My prayers are with you and the family. You loved him but God loved him more and saw that it was time for him to come home and rest from his labors. He is now at peace with his heavenly father where there is no more pain and suffering. God will see you through this difficult time of bereavement. God Bless you and your Family

“ Edward, I know we haven't spoken in a long time. I just wanted to send my condolences to you and your whole family. I know how much your father meant to you, as you spoke so highly of him to me and others at school. Your dad seemed like the type of man that did everything for his children even though at times he couldn't do for himself. Chase your dream Eddie. Do what your dad would want you to do. And be the strong man your dad was. I got much respect for you Edward. I miss you dearly. I'm really sorry for your loss. I wish I could just reach my arms out to you and let you know I'm right here as your friend. Also to the rest of Ervins family and loved ones Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave bereft
I am not there. I have not left.
Much love and respect to you all.
Take care of yourself. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
Edward - If you need anything I'm a phone call away. Love you much my friend.

“ On behalf of my entire family, we send our sincerest condolences to the Browning and extended family. We picture death as coming to destroy; let us rather picture Christ as coming to save. We think of death as ending; let us rather think of life as beginning and that more abundantly. We think of losing; let us think of gaining. We think of parting, let us think of meeting. We think of going away; let us think of arriving. And as the voice of death whispers "You must go from earth," let us hear the voice of Christ saying, "You are but coming to Me!" God touched Erving with His finger of love, and he rested.

“ Ervin, we love you and will miss you dearly. All we can do is to hold onto the memories. We can still see your bright smile, playing center field on Potter School. Our hearts are heavy now, but in due time we will understand God's work. Aunt Helen, Trish, Dave and SunnyBoy, you all are in our thoughts and prayers. May God bless the Browning family.
