“ I sincerely offer my condolence. Ethel Morrison's death has no doubt cast a shadow over you as you go about your daily life because death brings us face-to-face with the fact that she is gone too soon. Her presence will be dearly missed. Despite the pain of grief, let it be your resolve to continue to work your way through heartache and sorrow. Her rich life leaves many memories.

Times like this make us sad. But, there is "a time to weep." (Ecclesiastes 3:4) Yet you can have the hope of seeing your love one. "Do not let your be troubled". (John 14:27) We may feel paralyzed by a tragedy such as this. Remember: God can help you to endure any and every problem they may face. He will give you the "power beyond what is normal" to go from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7) Her footprints that were left will always be seen. The sands of time will not wash them away.

I did not know Ethel Morrison personally. I read her obituary. May you have comfort and peace.

"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal"-Unknown
