

Mr. Eual Holman

March 3, 1958 - September 25, 2023

Mr. Eual Caldwell Holman was born March 3, 1958 in Saginaw, Michigan the beloved son of Garver and Canary Holman. He passed away on Monday, September 25, 2023 at the age of 65 years.

On March 9, 1977 he embraced the joy of fatherhood, welcoming LaValle Holman into his heart. In that very year, he embarked on a courageous journey by joining the U.S. Marine Corps demonstrating his commitment to serving his country. During his time in the Marines, Eual faced the ultimate test of survival when he emerged as one of 13 survivors of a harrowing helicopter crash in the Philippines. His resilience and bravery were evident and his fellow Marines held him in high regard for his unwavering spirit.

In his young adulthood years, Mr. Holman dedicated himself to family and community. He worked alongside his father to build a home in Eupora, Mississippi leaving behind a lasting legacy of hard work and dedication.

On December 14, 2021 he and the love of his life, Renail Gordon sealed their bond in matrimony. Together, they brightened the lives of all who knew them. During this time Mr. Holman embraced fatherhood once more welcoming Carl Gordon into his loving family where he continued to nurture and guide those entrusted to his care.

Eual is survived by his loving wife, Renail Gordon Holman; two sons, LaValle (Josie) Holman and Carl (Jamecia) Gordon; three siblings, Shirley Thomas, Mary Holman and Edward Holman; brothers-in-law, Felton (Minnie) Jackson, Lee Wallace, Carl, David and James Gordon; sisters-in-law, Betty Haywood and Diane Tyler; 12 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; many nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Mr. Eual C. Holman was preceded in death by his parents, Garver and Canary Holman; brother, Larry Holman, brothers-in-law, Fred, Thomas, Larry, Joe Milton, Charles and Kim Gordon; four sisters-in-law, Gloria Holman, Sandra Holliday, Roberta Hairson and JoAnne Ezell; one nephew, Pervis Jackson; father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon.

The family would like to thank the staff at Covenant HealthCare and Henry Ford Hospitals for taking care of our beloved son, father, husband, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend, Mr. Eual Caldwell Holman.

To those fortunate enough to know him, Mr. Eual Holman will forever be remembered for his courage, determination and unwavering love for his family. He leaves behind a legacy of strength, resilience and love that will be cherished for generations to come.

“ Uncle Eual this is hard because I remember when Aunt Nail showed me the wedding ring and her eyes just lit up with happiness. I was so excited for her. I know that some people never meet the love of their life, but my Aunt Nail did.

Now, her eyes are filled with tears and sadness. I know that sometimes we do not understand the why when people depart, but I do know that people search their whole life looking for a companion.

I don't know what it feels like to lose a husband, but I do know grief. I know it very well, and it feels like your heart is shattered into pieces it feels like the world has stopped moving. Sometimes you cannot breathe but you must hold on to each memory that you have of this person because that is how you make it through. You must celebrate their life through the memories.

So, as I think about how Eual treated my Auntie like a Queen and all the events and actives that he attended with our family. I think about all the road trips that you two shared. I enjoyed listening to my Auntie telling me about the different adventurers they had. I will always hold that dear to my heart.

What I will simply say to my Auntie is grieve kick, scream, yell, but whatever you do always remember Eual Holman. A wonderful, kindhearted, giving person. He truly loved my Auntie and she the same for him, she was his rose. Uncle Eual will always be with us. Just close your eyes and remember even with the tears rolling down your cheek, remember the good times.

Love you Aunt Nail. Rest in peace Uncle Eual.

Sincerely,

Your Niece Dee Dee

“ Wow! I can't believe you're gone. I remember at Bob T's funeral, when you told him you will him soon. We all laughed because we didn't know it would be this soon. I remember you and Bob T. sitting in the kitchen and Renail and I would be in the living listening to y'all tell the same stories over and over again. Renail and I would pretend we were y'all and repeat along with you the same stories we have heard 100 times. We would then burst out laughing. You and Bob T. would cuss us out and say what so funny. Now you are with Bob T. and Renail and I are left here. Don't worry about your wife, I will be there for her like you were. Love you! P.S. Did you leave the recipe for your Long Island Ice Tea, that would put hair on your chest.

“ My Dearest Eual,

My husband, my love, my best friend. You know it's funny, we grew up in the same city, knew the same people, and frequented some of the same places and for most of our lives we never knew each other. But when God destines someone to be in your life, he will make away for the two of you to meet and I thank God for allowing us to meet when we did. As I sit here, I think about our times together, the trips we took together, our ups, our down, our gains, our losses and even health challenges that we faced together. We experienced real life together and by that, I mean, not every day was always perfect and sunny. Some days there was rain. But I couldn't see myself doing life with anyone else the way I did life with you, and I'd do it all over again if it could be with you.

I thank you Eual for coming into my life and being that example of a real man. For showing me real love, the way a man is supposed to love and respect a woman. There will never be another you! I will forever respect and cherish your memory. Rest well my love until we meet again. I miss you! Loving you always!
