Healthy because such passion must be released.

Honorable because it is respectful to admit the importance of people who have loved and supported us.

“ Heaven must have been missing an Angel. Truly a Great Woman. Her Greatness was wrapped up, tied up and tangled up in her Service to Humanity.

GOD, Thank you for allowing us to have her for such a short time.

"To The Family of Ms. Evelyn 'Faye' Spates:

*My memories overwhelm me: Childhood, adolescence, adulthood.
She...(tears, sobbing) throughout life, always recognized me and I she-as our paths crossed once more.*

I know 'death is unto life-eternal, Amen.

She will recognize me yet again...and I she, when my chariot arrives in the presence of She and Our Maker".

"God be your strength and comfort during your time(s) of need".

“ Evelyn was the epitome of an African-American woman. She stood strong in her individual morals, dreams and goals. I will always remember her dedication to excellence in all that she attempted (achieved). She was alright with me.

As I no longer live in Saginaw, I was unaware of her death until I recently viewed this site following the death of another friend.

My deepest sympathy and prayers are dedicated to the Spates family. I've experienced the loss of a loved one and I know the anguish.

In Christ,

“ Proverbs 31: 30-31
Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised Give her the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Dear family, God has again called upon another Angel. Yes, we will truly miss Faye; just remember one thing, LOVE NEVER DIES. Where there is pain, God will give us peace and mercy. With our love and deepest sympathy.

“ It was so wonderful to have spent time with Faye before she made her departure, and to be blessed with the assurance that she was at peace. Although there will always be a void in our hearts for her, we strive to get to where she is...in the presence of almighty God. To do so (Spates, Clark and Carruth families) we must do as she did...fight a GOOD fight, keep the FAITH and finish our course. Praying that God will comfort you as only He can. Berry & Von

“ To my family:

May God continue to comfort each one of you at your time of loss. We loved Spates, but God loved her most. We will truly miss her, but as in Psalm 27:4, David states, "One thing have I asked of the Lorr, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple." Spates is dwelling in the house of the Lord. Praise God!!
