“ We would like to express our sincere sympathy for all of you. We pray that in those quiet times when all the family and friends have gone that you will find comfort and peace from the Holy Spirit. We pray that the strength and grace of God would continually rest upon you during this time.

We are soory that we could not physically be there with you, but are hearts are with you and our prayers are with you. Our church family has prayed for you and we believe that God has heard and answered our prayers.

God Bless!
