“ To The Family Of The Late Ms. Faye B. Williams:
Mr Ollie, I Give you my deepest sympathy & Condolences in the passing of your wife and companion Ms faye. I just found out as i have just returned from Ohio from a family reunion. I will always remember her warm cmile and her care for me when me & Ursula was together & even afterwards. Please gie my sympoathy to wendell and jimmy daughter. I will alwyws love you guys & she is with jimmy now in heaven. I know that leaves a void inyour life but let god see you through it and it will be alright. "Weeping may endureth but a night but your joy cometh in the morning". Look to the hills where'seth my help come from. Where does it comes from? The Lord of The heavenly Lights. I willl be by to see you in person soon. Stay Strong in the lord and the power that he has to sustain you doing these turbulent times. I will always love you Mr. Ollie. Again My deepest sympathy to you & your family on the homegoing of Mrs. Faye Bell Williams. In Christian Sympathy & Love Mr Orlando Jones Sr.
