“ Mom Flossie,

You were always there when I need to talk, cry or just laugh. You treated just as if you had given birth to me yourself and you told me all the time that I was your daughter and "Bet nobody have anything to say about it" in the way that only you could say it. Your love for me will be forever in my heart cause you loved me unconditionally. You treated my children as your grandsons, making sure that they knew that you would get on them when ever they did wrong and I have to say that they loved you for that and will miss you very much as I will. Going to the house will never be the same, I will never hear those words of "Come on in and give me the low down" .

Mom Flossie you know that I told you many things that I did not share with anyone else and I have never to this day heard it again. I will miss our talks, our laughs but most of your love for me and my sons.

Rest on Momma Flossie, you fought the good fight.

It's not "GOODBYE BUT SEE YOU LATER"

*Love always,
Your Daughter
Sylvia George*
