She was the seventh of nine children; all have preceded her in death. Ms. Newton received her elementary education at Salem Elementary School in the Sumter County School System. Flowreader confessed Christ at an early age at Salem A.M.E. Zion Church. She loved the Lord and exemplified this by serving God and others in her everyday life. On the morning of July 2, 2007, Ms. Newton completed her work. Her life's chapter had come to an end and God closed the book. The angels were dispatched to Heartland Medical Center to transport her spirit to the land of freedom, where sorrow could no longer enter, and pains could no longer be found. She leaves to cherish her memory seven children, Bernice Little of Saginaw, MI, Homer Newton of Saginaw, MI, Floria Mae (Perry) Williams of Chicago, IL, Betty (Sylvester) Harris of Conyers, GA, Bertha (Bruce) Walker of Saginaw, MI, John Newton of Ionia, MI and Lonnie (Georgia) Newton of Saginaw, MI; a host of grandchildren; great-grandchildren; great-great-grandchildren; other family members and friends.
