“ I met Frankie way back in the early seventies. She was a kind spirit that would do anything for you or help you if you needed it. Every since I met her, she had that one little fella with her that she named Junior. He was with her daily and if you saw her, you saw him! Frankie was also an activist and would help fight for any cause that would benefit the poor and down-trodden even though she herself didn't have much to give. I know that her special purpose in life was to be a helper for those that needed help. God now has another angel waiting for her wings. You will be missed Frankie because there are a lot of us who love you. Rest In Peace my sister in Christ.
