“ One year ago today, we lost a proud, loving man. A man who gave us the meaning of Ambition, strength, honor and respect! The road has been tough since I lost my best friend! A man that supported me when no one else was there! A man that showed me that "a man has to find his own path!" He always made sure Christmas' were about family, giving and Christ contrary to what we see on television! Wish we could chill and watch "It's a wonderful Life" again. Or the Lions play Thanksgiving games! I thank you Dad! Soon our father in heaven will have his glory and we will meet again and I will cherish your presence! I Love you Pops and I will continue to live on with strength, honor and wisdom! Semper Fi Marine!! Your Baby Boy Loves you and the time I have left on this earth will be spent wisely!!

“ Dear Grandpa:
Remember when you'd go to the store
To get us snacks, and later some more?
You always had your famous chair
Where no one could ever sit there.
You and Jeff would watch the games,
But soon things would come to change.
1 month later, in and out the door
You on different hospital floors.
Daddy's sad, we'd always come and stay
But then came that fatal day.
Now your gone, things feel strange
Most back to normal, few feel pain.
But your memory will always stay strong
R.I.P. with love, from home.

“ My condolences goes out to my family. My memories of you is opening up your home to me as a young girl showing me love thank you. I will always remember your smile and will continue to celebrate your life. Buts if I didn't know any better I could hear you saying these very words.....

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid, you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call.
I turned around and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found the peace on a sunny day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A family shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things, I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee.
God wanted me now; He set me free. I will always remember you and love you dad. Until we meet again. Sherelle H. Knight*

“ Our hearts are heavy knowing you are gone and left behind a loving family to morn. We remember the numerous times you traveled down to Houston to spend time with your baby girl, sweet son, and their growing families. Vince, you, DuBois, and Derek would chill in the man cave or near the pool talking "men stuff" and enjoying the simple things in life. I can see you now in that corner chair watching a football game and quietly cheering on your team. Around us you were soft spoken and also had a gentle, caring presence. We will forever cherish the memories!!!

God never makes a mistake. Know that we will do our best to support your baby girl, sons, and wife during this valley. Smile down on them from heaven above!

Rest in paradise sweet dad ?
