“ Stephanie and family, I am truly sorry for your loss. Sometimes it seems that things happen that are unexplainable, and there is absolutely nothing we can do about them. Stephanie, they say that you should give people their flowers and compliments while they are here to receive them. I just want you to know that I admire your strength and courage. Everytime we talk I am amazed by your positive outlook that is always stated with a beautiful smile. You are truly an inspiration to me and my daughter Joia. Keep trusting in God, because he has all the answers and when it's all said and done, He always causes us to triumph. I just want you to know that we are here for you, Demetrius and his little sister. If there is anything, and I do mean anything that I can do for you, please don't hesitate to give me a call. Even if you just need someone to listen, give me a call (anytime). Take care, we love you with the love of Christ and we are praying for you and your family.

“ I thought alot over the past few days about how we all grew up together. Me, Fred and Eric were "partners in crime". I am thankful that we were a "real family" and did everything together and because of that we have some great memories. Stephanie, hang in there. You have been a great source of strength to your family, and even if you feel tired right now, know that God would never put more on you than you can bear. Goodnight Fred, rest in peace.
