“ Stephanie and Family I'd like to express my deepest Condolences and prayer's to the family at this hard time. Freddie was a young man with alot of respect and love for all around. He will truly be missed by many.

The loss of a love one is so hard to face, you just want to hide, go some where and escape!

But death is something,

we all must go through,

I know it's hard,

when it's someone you loved and knew.

Just know now,

he is in a better place,

no more hurt or pain shall he face.

It seems unfair and yes this is true,

but he is in Heaven now watching over you!

God has called him home to rest!!

And he's being well taken care of

Because God knows best!

Stephanie we love you and care a great deal about you, I am here if you ever want to talk, I'll be there for you,

Love, Berta Jimenez

“ As a childhood friend to both big Fred and Stephanie, and watching little fred grow and become an example of what a young man should be like, I'm very saddened to see his candle extinguished so young by an act of cowardice. My heart will always be with you both now, and in the future. I want to wish you both much love and support during this time of sorrow, and know that whatever you need, we will be there for you. Love you both, and will sorely miss little fred.

Prayer for Comfort

Dear Jesus, You have said in the Gospels that if anyone is tired, or weary, or grieved, that person should come to You for relief. My son is gone and I am devastated with grief, I hardly know what to do next.

My thoughts turn to the immediate future and I wonder what I'm going to do without him!

Compassionate Lord, please, come to my aid now, and give me the ability to cope with this burden. I ask this in Your holy name. Amen

“ To the Harvey, Jones Family,

My heart dropped when I heard the word of the death of your son. I would always see lil Fred with a basketball in his hand. He played basketball with my grandsons on 4th street. Loosing a child is a hard pill to swallow but through the help of our lord and savior Jesus Christ he can comfort and console you doing the hard times. Remember the good times you'll shared. My prayers will continue daily to lift your family in prayer.

“ To Fred Harvey, Sr. and the entire family:

On behalf of myself and the entire Smith family, I wish to express my deepest sympathy during this most tragic time. My prayer is that God grant you with everlasting peace, joy, justice, and favor in your coming future. I have know Lil Freddie since he was little starting at the First Ward Community Center to know as a grown man, who had purpose and the heart of loving everyone. I can't remember him having a bad day, he kept on following the older youth around and stayed on the basketball court. To Fred whom I know personally and to his mom who I haven't have the pleasure of meeting yet, I know you both raised a great son because I seen him with you all the time, and he respected everyone he came in contact with. I can write all night, but I'm blessed to have been apart of his life for such a short time, but I know that one day we all will have a reunion one day. “ This young man's life coming to an end so soon has been a true disappointment for me. I am disappointed because Fred was such a bright spot in my life and in the life of others. I had the honor and pleasure of teaching Fred for 3 years in a row. Two at Arthur Eddy Academy and one at Saginaw High School. Fred was one of those students who you loved having in your class. Not because he was such an academician (although he could have been so if he wanted to) but he filled the room with laughs and love. He was like a son to me and we would have the whole class laughing with our antics.If I hurt his feelings, he would pout and make me apologize to him which would cause him to reward me with his infectious smile and a big ol hug. If he hurt my feelings, he couldn't rest until he had made his way back over to me and made things right. I haven't seen him in a while, but whenever I saw him it was like we had just seen each other the day before. No love was lost and it was as if we hadn't missed a beat. If I had, he would make it his business to catch me up. I am going to really miss not seeing him and catching up from time to time. I am going to miss his smile. I am going to miss his energy. Most of all I am going to miss him. I love you Freddy!

“ i have so much on my mind that i want to say to you. sometimes all the memories that i have makes me sad and sometimes i laugh at all the funny times we had together. you made everybody happy and kept a smile on everybody faces.. i wish you still was here it still seems so unreal...no matter how far you go i know you are always here with me watching over everybody. its hard to stay happy when you lost somebody that was close to you, but i promise i will keep my head up because i know you would want us to. tears cant explain how much pain i have inside... your gone but never forgotten bighead :)

Crossing Over

*Oh, please don't feel guilty
It was just my time to go.
I see you are still feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years
I don't want you to keep crying
You are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you
Even though it may seem so.
I have just gone to my heavenly home,
And I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe that when you say
my name, I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.
But I'll still send you messages
And hope you understand,
That when your time comes to
"cross over," I'll be there to take your hand.:(R.I.P Freddie*

“ My thoughts and prayers goes out to the family.

I will miss you dearly Freddy. All the great laughs in class, the random outburst of jokes, and the random dance moves out of nowhere. You've always kept everyone laughing & had nothing but a smile every time I saw you. I still cannot believe that you are gone but this is not a goodbye. This is a simply, see-you-later. Keep smiling down on us. You're in a better place now. Will miss you so much.

“ On behalf of my family, the Mixon's, Young's and Rattler's, we send our most sincerest condolences. We mourn with you today, and though this moment which is now written in the Jones-Harvey history. Think not disdainfully of death, but look on it with favor; for even death is one of the things that Nature wills. Death and Love are two wings, which bear men from earth to Heaven. It was God's finger of love which touched this young prince, and he slept. Love for Life, Keith “ Freddy was a close acquaintance of mines. He kept a smile on my face. No matter if his day was going bad, he would make the best out of it. && He also was my cousin Champagne Galvin's boyfriend. He was really close to the family. All i know is that i will always remember him for the good because that's all he ever tried to do.

“ Psalms 23:4:

Even though I walk through the dark valley of death, because you are with me, I fear no harm. Your rod and your staff give me courage....

Luke 1:79:

To shine upon {and} give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to direct {and} guide our feet in a straight line into the way of peace...

“ Stephanie, I just want You to know that You and Your Family are in My Prayers. I never had the opportunity to meet your son Frederick, but Steph if he had a beautiful smile, spirit, and was fun to be around, then I know he was a wonderful young man, because he had a good role model in You. Keep God First and He will Bring You Through This. Hold All Frederick's Memories Close In Your Thoughts and In Your Heart and He won't be Far Away. God Bless You and Your Family Steph. Love You Yvette “ Words cannot express how truly saddened I was to hear of Freddie's death. He was my favorite all-time student!!!! That infectious smile, his Inquisative mind, impeccable manners, and helpful ways made him the ideal student!!! He always came back to visit his "old" teacher and kept me updated on all his accomplishments. His last visit was this past May. As usual he came walking down the hall, smiling and we gave each other a big hug. I was so very proud of him!

Here was a student who had brains, ambition and support from his family. Not that I ever had to call home on him, net still his dad and mom were always in checking on him. Our Freddie touched so many lives in his shortened life. When I lost my own son, I learned that maybe it wasn't how long he lived but how well! Freddie lived well!!!! He will forever be my favorite student. Rest in peace and I will continue to pray for his family.

“ Fred And Stephanie I'm so sorry about the loss of lil Fred. I pray that God comfort and keep you and family strong doing this period of adjustment. You both did an awesome job raising lil Fred. Thanks for letting him be a part of my success. Thanks for allowing me the opportunity to provide daycare service to Fred at a very young age. Fred was a good kid. Remember, Don't take matters in your own hands, just let the Lord handle it. Justice will be served to the coward(s) who do this. So, just look to the hill from whence cometh your help all of your help will come from the Lord. LOVE Ya'll.
