“ Sarge, was what we all called Mr Gentry Smith, where that name came from I don't know but he was always a cool funny little man with a warm smile
To my cousins you all have our deepest sympathy, " weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning " This has always been my motto, and I am praying for all of you.
Love your cousin Gwen & Larry & family

“ My Dad was the kind of man that what ever Jobs or Hobbies he was did he put his all into it. He was never the kind of man to give up he never did anything half way so to say that means my dad was something else different and everyone that knew him knew that. Gentry didn't play no games. I remember people asking me when i was grown up who my dad is and when i say mr gentry they like pause eyes be all bucked are you serious oh man good luck they say man what was it like living with gentry well I say me and all my siblings know and were not telling but If you knew of him or about him you know for yourself but I can say this he was well known and liked and love by many people's. as for me I'm thanking and praising God for allowing me to have my dad for 92 yrs. I loved my dad so much he was my hero and I miss him so much already love you Pops Rest up dad.
