“ George as you leave us for your place with God, our hearts are heavy because we are going to miss you, your always welcoming smile, listening to your advice on many things but especially how to repair thing around the house and the pride you took on your work, know that you instilled that same pride In George (Jr).

I will always remember the love and pride that always showed on your face when George (Jr) walked into a room, or when he needed your advice, there was an eagerness to help and get him answers.

Without knowing you and Lender thought me about forgiveness, tolerance and love by You both showing up for one another I really want to thank you for that. To George (Jr) , George III, Marc,, Michael & Arron you will all miss him but you all had your own special relationship with him, so when you think of him or find yourself missing him just remember the food times and believe me I know there wan many.

My prayers and lovely are with you all.
