“ *My Aunt Georgia you made your havenly fatter proud of you being so faithful to Zion Baptist Church, and so faithful and true to your family..You are what we called a virtuous woman and you never gave up your faith in God, As I watch you for many years singing in the choir and put on your choir rob and also remove your rob, all I could do is hung you and smile and thank the Lord for your honor and faith in God. I understood why you never stop singing for the lord, now your not in our presence but your in the presence of our Saviour wearing your robe...I thank God so much for lending you us here on earth....May you RIH, Aunt Gerogia Mays Jones, sleep on my faithful and virtuous woman of God, Love you so much...Marilyn K.
