“ Tosha, Robbie, Courtney and Cory..My greatest joy in meeting your "Uncle T" 15 years ago was becoming a part of such a wonderful family..Glenda and I "clicked" right away and I will always have some beautiful memories of conversations we shared and things we were able to do together such as the good time we had last July when she came to visit..I can feel the love and respect she taught each of you to have for your family and I know you will continue to live your lives in ways that will make her proud.. Me and your uncle will always be here for you and will continue to keep you in our thoughts and prayers..Luv & Hugs Forever!!

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say... but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love.

*Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you."*

It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.

*As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.
I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.
There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man."*

*God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.
And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.
God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.*

*When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.
But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.
Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.*

*I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.
But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.
But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.
I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.*

*There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;
but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.
It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too... that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.*

*If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain, then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."
And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile.*

*So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go.
When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind;
I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.*

And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me.

“ Please accept this heartfelt expression of sympathy at this time of loss.

Tasha and Robbie, think about all of the good times we had together. Always remember how very special your mother was. I loved her very much during the time we had in this life.

Tasha, I hope to see you at the family reunion so that I may be able to express my feelings in person.

Love Red and Family.;

“ To the family of Glenda Estes, this is the hardest thing that you will have to face, but if you Trust in Jehovah you will endure this pain. He promised a new system when "he will wipe every tear from there eyes and death will be no more" Revelation 21: 3,4. This is what I, your Aunt Shirley and Uncle Archer believe in. and we will be happy to share that hope you all of you as well.

Love you all
