“ I was a Mrs.Glorias neighbor. This breaks my heart to hear that she's not with us no more. Had alot of beautiful moments with her. Alot of funny jokes and stories. She was one one of a kind. Very loving towards me and my sons. I remember her ordering Chinese for her and my late son Jesse. They would eat together. This is one of the moments when we get so caught into our own lives and forget the people who made us feel like a part of their family members . Life is so short I'm so thankful for the moments I had with her.

“ I use to to live next door to Gloria when we lived on Schaeffer Street before we moved to the U.P. and visited quite often. She was a pretty amazing lady. I remember making Pasties for her the first time and she always got one with every fresh batch I made. She was so good to talk to and her love of the Lord was inspiring. She taught me a few things about cooking that I will cherish. My thoughts and prayers are with the Family and May God's Grace continue to shine bright upon you especially for the difficult days ahead. Rest easy Gloria and thank you for your friendship. I have always treasured it.

“ I have so many fond memories of Gloria, or Jeannie as we called her. She's been a friend of my mother Aretha (Katherine), and my grandmother Edna Mae, for a long, long time. Since our project days. Whenever I would see her we would talk about all kinds of things, but I appreciated her telling me the stories from the past of when I was young and how and what my mom and grandmom used to do. You cherish those things coming from people who you knew, knew them very well. Especially when they are no longer on earth anymore. Then in later years she ended up being a neighbor again to my mother and all of her children grew up around the corner from us, being friends with my sisters and brothers. So I remember James and Ricky and Nene very well. My condolences go out to all of your famiy in case I have missed somebody. Sheridan and McCoskry streets are empty now, but they will always hold lots of good memories. Take your rest now Jeannie, you fought the good fight! You talked to me a lot about the Lord, so I know you loved Him, believed in Him and was saved. Praying your strength, peace, and comfort.
