“ I was real saddened to here of Gloria's transistion, especially since I was so anxiously awaiting and expecting her visit to Memphis next month. I will nev er forget the fun we had when I lived in Saginaw. I will now forever cherish the last time she was here in Memphis with her sister and Lynn Burley.

“ Torrye, Aunt Janet and other family members, WOW! my heart goes out for all of yous. Me and Mama Loveless goes way back from the days I rode with her to work at Saginaw Steering Gear intill her son married my sister. It was a many day she wanted to put me out the car from popping my chewing gum. Boy! I'm going to miss Mama Loveless, I would always ask "T" about her, no matter where I was living. She was like my Mom too and she love all of us Cooper children as we were her own. Torrye is not only our brother-n-law, he our brother and we love him. Mama Loveless we will take good care of "T" and I know my sister will and his children Lil'T & Jazz. You at home now with Daddy Loveless & Mama and the other family members who has gone before us and most of all with your Savior Jesus Christ our Lord! I will catch you on the other side, listen for the popping of the Chewing gum as I cross over(smile).
