“ so many memories of my aunt, she really never had much to say, but you can always catch her saying ain't it doe...lol coming up as a kid I spent a lot time at your house you and my dad was so close. I remember going to the store for you and you would always give us the left over change, no matter how much it was, I use to love going to the store for auntie. i'm glad your not in anymore pain, no more suffering, its over now. you are with your brothers and your mom and dad and I know you all are having a good ole time. you will truly be missed auntie. to my cousin I know what you are feeling I can't say stay strong because this is truly a hard pill to swallow. stay in prayer and talk to God even if you want to question his purpose, he'll give you the answer.... I love you auntie give my parents a big huge hug for me and I know one day we all will meet again. so this isn't good bye but see you later and save me a spot with my name on it.
