“ This Father’s Day feels different.

The weight of a quiet absence is something words can’t fully carry. Our family is walking through the loss of someone who was a true anchor in our lives—a man who lived his faith out loud, loved with strength and humility, and reminded us often that it’s the Lord’s will, not ours.

For 32 years, I was blessed to know him—and for 28 of those, after the passing of my own father, he quietly stepped into that space without ever needing to be asked. A spiritual guide. A listening ear. A teacher of grace and patience. The kind of man who unpacked hard moments with wisdom and lifted us with the Word.

If you ever said, “I don’t know if I can,” he’d gently ask, “Why not?”—reminding you it’s not about ability, but the heart and effort behind the trying.

He leaves behind a beautiful legacy: his loving wife, five amazing children, grandchildren, a great-granddaughter he absolutely adored, beloved siblings, extended family, and countless friends whose lives he touched. His wisdom, presence, and quiet strength were felt by more than just our immediate circle—his life impacted other families and communities too.

His fingerprints are on every one of us. Our home, our hearts, our faith... all shaped in part by his love and example.

Watching my husband carry this loss has been one of the hardest things. He’s still in shock, still in disbelief. But even in the middle of that grief, our son looked up and reminded us with clarity and strength: “Granddad left us with the tools and resources to push through life by reading the Word and building our relationship with Jesus.”

That’s exactly what we’ll do.

*We love you. We miss you.
Thank you for showing us what steadfast faith, unconditional love, and quiet strength look like.*

Saginaw won't be the same without you... but Heaven feels a little closer now.

To Min. Dorothy Grady and family, along with all of the connecting families. Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy goes out to you at this time. Min. Greg was a friend over 30 yrs, meeting him through my cousin Robert Hill and that bond lasted till his departure. We even shared in ministry under the leadership of his brother-in-law, Apostle Edward & Prophetess Mattie Jackson. My Bro. Greg will be deeply missed.

You see a miracle don't have to real extravagant it could be the smile you gave me every time we met. Or the way that you laughed. I'm gonna miss that a lot.
