

Mr. Herman Kevin Wearrien

August 17, 1962 - May 19, 2018

Mr. Herman Kevin Wearrien was born August 17, 1962 in Patterson, New Jersey to Herman Wearrien and Bessie Nash. He passed away on May 19, 2018 at Covenant Healthcare-Cooper at the age of 55 years.

Kevin accepted Christ at an early age and attended Grant Street, Williams Memorial C.O.G.I.C., now known as Victorious Believers Ministries Church of God In Christ until he relocated to Grand Rapids, MI. Upon returning to Saginaw 18 years later, he became a member of Messiah Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Otis Washington where Kevin served as the lead guitarist in the Music Ministry.

Kevin attended the Buena Vista Public Schools and was presently employed at Menard's Distribution Center. He was a jokester, fun loving person with a kind and humble spirit and always kept a smile on his face. As an only child Kevin grew up spending his summers in Buford, SC with his family and making many friends. He was proud to be a Wearrien and often bragged about those Wearrien Boys. He had a passion for cars, especially his 1975 light blue Buick Regal. "Fat Back" was known for being the first person to rig a TV in his car and roll up and down Genesee Street. Mr. Wearrien enjoyed dressing in nice suits and especially wearing that special suit on "Mothers' Day" for church. Kevin began playing the guitar at the early age of two years old and as the years went by his talent flourished. Kevin was blessed, he was so cold that he could play the guitar with his teeth. He had often played in School Talent Shows, and for various groups such as the Heavenly Harmonizers, Solid Rock, Wings of Faith, The Front Page Band, Five O'Clock Rock and shared his expertise when needed.

Kevin leaves his best friend, the love of his life, his soulmate and wife of 12 years, LaCresha Lynn; his loving and nurturing mother, Bessie (James) Nash; one daughter, Nicole Strong-Wearrien (Carlton Whitley); one grandson, Caaleb Murray, all of Grand Rapids, MI; one step-daughter, Ericka Cooper (Darius Williams); two god-daughters, Alana and DiMiya, both, of Saginaw, MI; one step-brother, Willie Lee Green of Atlanta, GA; mother-in-law, Erma Cooper; three brothers-in-law, Derrick (Brenda) Cooper, George Cooper and James Luckyado; two sisters-in-law, Debbie (Eric) Isom and Cheryl Cooper (Leon Jackson) both of Saginaw, MI; four uncles, Archeles (Julia) Wearrien of Beaufort, South Carolina, Earl (Mary Ann) Wearrien of Shreveport, LA, Teotha Wearrien of Brooklyn,

New York and Sam (Wendy) Simon of Flint, MI; ten aunts, Rebecca (Henry) Reaves, Helen Giles, all of Brooklyn, New York, Almanda (Oscar) Green of Charleston, South Carolina, Rev. Vernell Brabham of Denmark, South Carolina and Joanne Wearrien of Saginaw, MI; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends, including special friends, Pastor Otis Washington, Pastor Paul E. Broaddus, best friend/cousin, Earl Wearrien, The Front Page Band, Hilton and Leon Jackson, Mark Robinson, Bruce Brown, Ken Ryans, Oscar Wilson and The Messiah Baptist Church Music Ministry.

Kevin was preceded in death by his father, Herman Wearrien; grandparents, Harry (Glener) Simon, Freddie (Juanita) Wearrien and father-in-law, George Cooper.

The family extends special thanks to Covenant Cooper ECC Team, Messiah Missionary Baptist Church, Prince of Peace Missionary Baptist Church, TrueVine Missionary Baptist Church, Five O'Clock Rock Community Choir and Front Page Band Family.

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, May 25, 2018 at Messiah Missionary Baptist Church, 2615 Williamson Road, Saginaw, MI 4860. Pastor Otis Washington will officiate with interment at Forest lawn Cemetery, 3210 South Washington Ave., Saginaw, MI 48601. Friends may view at the church from 9:00 a.m. until time of service.

“ Kevin, rest peacefully my brother. For as back as my memory can recall, you are in some capacity, present. You blessed to live within your passion of music. Music blessed you, you blessed music and together you and music both blessed others. The musical fun we had in the garage on 28th street was epic!

LeCresha, you and Kevin were joined together in physical life and will forever be each others love. I offer my condolences, as well as to Mrs. Nash, the Cooper family and the extended family. May God bless and keep you.

“ To the family and wife of Kevin I would like to send my deepest condolences to you all may God bless and give you the strength to endure. I had the pleasure of knowing Kevin for over 30 something years and yes he was a very humble and kind spirited person ever time I saw him he was always smiling and he would always call me and say who loves you and I would say who is this he would say this your brother Kevin. Mark Robinson is my son's dad and we all use to hang out together and have a ball and they would play at J's Lounge every Thursday and myself and sisters and cousins would always go support them and yes Kevin was baddd playing the guitar with his teeth man I'm sure going to miss my boy he will be missed for sure I'll always remember that big smile. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord Rest in Peridise my friend and tell Paula I love and miss her I know you're up there in Peridise with her until we all meet again you gained you're wings tears.

“ To: Lacresha, Aunt Bessie, We are sending our love from South Carolina. Remember all the good times, don't think about the sad. I would like for you both to treasure all the special moments that we all shared throughout the years.

Our hearts are saddened and words cannot express how we are feeling now. Lacresha, Aunt Bessie, and Kevin you all were so happy together. That was the love and closeness that you all shared. I can still remember the last time when we were together laughing and having family fun time. Kevin, when the angels gathered near you, so very close to you, I can only imagine you gave them that big grin and laugh the way that you always did.

Kevin, we were two sisters children, but when we got together we were more like brothers and sisters. Kevin, I will always remember you and the happy and fun times that we shared. I know that God does not make any mistakes and Heaven is rejoicing with you. It is now time for you to be with our Heavenly Father and our other family members in Heaven. Kevin, I will always love you and remember you laughing and teasing us.

My heart is still in shock from hearing that my Brother/Cousin in Christ has made his transition to Heaven. Kevin you will truly be missed, your smile that lite up Cre's face as well as the room when you entered it. No one could make a guitar sing or talk like you did. I will miss that smile most of all my friend, cause no matter what was going on you always had that smile and it just made others feel better knowing that you were their friend.

Heaven has gained an Angel and I know that you will be watching over Cre and Auntie Bessie. My prayer for them to find comfort in knowing that you are definitely with our Lord and you will channel the strength to them to endure the days ahead. Rest on my brother, it's not "Goodbye" but "See You Later"

“ This is certainly a very hard pill to swallow; We just saw Kevin and wife at Messiah, his church, a few weeks ago when the male chorus had an event and I hugged him; so glad I did because that's the final meeting with him for me. May God's grace cover his wife, children and mother. I grew up in the church with Kevin at (Grant Street-Williams' Memorial, which is now known as Victorious Believers) from the time we were very young kids. I sat with his mom for a good while on Sunday after church and I am relentlessly praying for strength for her to get through this difficult time of losing her little sweetheart. God has certainly smiled on Kevin because he was one of the kindest, most humblest spirit you'd ever meet. God will certainly carry all of you through this. We will miss Kevin dearly but he is now in the bosom of Christ. Rest on Kev!

“ Kevin you will be missed dearly. I never got to taste your BBQ. I only post that cause I know it will make Cre smile through the tears and you loved her so much I know you would want her to be happy when she remembers you. I will miss our phone talks at work ganging up on Cre, I will do my best to mange it alone. You have left us to soon but I know you and Bentley are watching over her from heaven. I'll pray for you, Cre, your daughters and family daily. Cre I am so sorry for your loss, I wish I could take your pain away. Please know your work family loves you and we are here when you need us. God Bless. Lorie
