“ Dear Coney Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of time. I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms 83:18, Psalms 65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians 4:7)

“ Today I will lay my beautiful mother to rest. I already miss that sweet smile that brightened everyone's day. My mother was such a soft spoken, sweet person who always had a listening ear and a shoulder to cry on. Toward the end of her life, she couldn't say much but she always managed to tell me she loved me. She stood by my side no matter what and whenever I felt like I failed at something and wanted to go in another direction, she was always there with whatever kind of support I needed. She was truly my best friend and there was nothing I wouldn't do for her. I will miss her sooooo much but I am also glad to see her not in pain and suffering everyday like she did for about 3 months because seeing her like that truly broke my heart. I love you momma, till we meet again!

Your loving sister Mildred, my darling sister Hester. I reflect back on the time when daddy picked me up. Not telling me I had a new sister. Once he did, I was so excited. I ran so fast, that I ran out of my shoes. I had three brothers already, not the same as having my cute little sister. The lord blessed me too have you for 70 yes. Know you will always be in my heart. You will be in my heart for another 70yrs. I love & miss you already.

Love your oldest sister Mildred.
