“ Long as I been living on this earth, times like this shouldn't even be a surprise or shock by now. What I mean by that is we all know one day our time will come to leave here; but yet in still here I am lost for words Bro. I still remember the day I met you with Remy on Harold st when we was 10 yrs old. How could I forget, when you slam the hell outta me for saying you wasn't ridin to the skating rink with us. I ran and got a stick, but if anybody knew Dresie from when we was kids. Once he took off, it wasn't no catching him. Fattest but fastest in the whole hood.

After that day you saw me walking to M&D and apologized and we was cool ever since that day. Running around in the hood getting into almost any and everything possible. Sharing a bag of fries from Tony's cause we was broke, The fiend cars when we was only teenagers, running from the police from Webber to Ruckle and jumping through your bedroom window just barely making it before the police caught us, having crazy smoke outs in Coodie and Remy basement until my auntie kick all our butts out in the middle of winter, when we was going to Ricker, the whole school wanted to kill me and you stood up for me and said "This my boy from The Geto, and ain't nobody gone touch em!" Before you went to prison and you was on the run, we hung together all day everyday until the day Mohawk(Saginaw Police Dog) caught you trying to jump the fence behind Freeman and Diamond house on Harold. It seem like after that we was never the same. I went to go do my bit before I moved to GR and I barely came to Saginaw. But regardless of that, I'll never forget my friend and all we went through together. I could go on and on about all the wild and crazy stuff we was involved in growing up. I'll always cherish those memories with you, Cause 1 thang for sho and 2 thangs for certain, there'll never be another Idris Everett. Love ya Dogg Trel (G CODE) 🙌
