Our precious Isaiah was born April 4, 2014 in Saginaw, Michigan to Victoria Simmons and Stephen White. He passed away Thursday, February 15, 2018 at Mott Children Hospital of Ann Arbor at the tender age of three years.

Isaiah Stephon Simmons-White loved being with his mother everywhere she went and enjoyed talking to his dad on the phone everyday. Zay loved soul food, crab legs, spicy foods and corn starch. His favorite color was yellow but he added two more colors on to his favorite list in honor of his parents' favorite colors. Mommy's favorite being purple and daddy's being white. Isaiah was a champion. He was the strongest baby God could have created. Isaiah smiled through his storm and he fought as long as he could.
