“ I miss you grandad, it's been hard to deal with your passing even more so after becoming a dad. I need your guidance. I kid waking up early on a Saturday to BBQ and getting served breakfast then watching cartoons. I miss you picking me up from high school back then. I miss you driving around that van I was always proud of. I hate that I wasn't there or around as much as I should have after I moved to Iowa. There is so much I can go on about...truth is I sheltered myself from dealing with the pain. I know you are happy in a better place now. I love you and so does Zaiden and Kylie.

“ Came across this link in my email while sitting here at work. I didn't really read the obituary before, because I was so mad and hurt that I could not be home or had the chance to speak with you the day before. You were and still is an extraordinary man, your legacy continues through your grandsons and your great-grandsons. you and grandma would be so proud of them, you raised some fine men. I love you and miss you so much! RIH granddad.

“ Dear Casey Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.
