

James R. "Jim" Cohill

September 11, 1943 - November 19, 2013

Our beloved brother, father and friend went home to be with the Lord Tuesday, November 19, 2013 at Covenant-Harrison at the age of 70 years. James Ronald Cohill was born on September 11, 1943 in Saginaw, MI, the son of Alonzo and Essie Taylor, Sr. and Dee Cohill.

Jim was employed as a laborer but his greatest love was painting portraits and restoring and painting cars with his friends gathered around him. Jim attended Saginaw Valley State University and enjoyed talking to and encouraging the younger generation to aspire to excellence.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his longtime partner, Luella Brown and her family; one daughter, Jametta Washington; his siblings, Joseph (Delores) Williams, Nadine Harrison, Alonzo (Barbara) Taylor, Jr., Gloria (David) Dixon; sister-in-law, Eloise Taylor; seven step-children, Debbie, Sharon, Bernell, Tamara, Kathy, Brent, Latonia and Nate; many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends, including special friends, Al Beasley, Lee Thomas, Ron Shepard and wife, Darryl, David Lewis, Mary Dunn, David D., J.B. Allan, Warner and wife, and great-nephew, LeRoy Harrison II.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, Alonzo and Essie Taylor, Sr. and Dee Cohill; sisters, Ora Dee Foster and Goldie; and brother, Wendell Taylor, Sr.

A private service has already taken place.

“ Dear Cohill Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.” (Psalm 34:18) God’s holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next.(2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.
