“ My Brother, My Teacher, My Friend. God saw you getting weary, so he laid you down to rest. It's always been said God only takes the best. Your laughter & spirit I will always carry in my heart. So you see my brother we are really not that far apart. I'll try not to shed a lot of tears, but know when it rains I'll think of you where ever you are Never near, never far. Tell Daddy & Dora I said Hello, until we all meet again, R.I.P Jim Bob. I love you my brother, my teacher, my friend. Love Neno

“ My dear uncle, you will be missed more than words can express. The last time we talked we were planning your 60th birthday party. I am still going to have it. You introduced me to the world of Jazz, golf and chess. I only liked Jazz!! You were the closet thing I had to a father. I will always remember your sayings and your statements about "assuming", Nelson Mandela and just pure life in general. You had such a great love for my mother and I don't believe I ever thanked you for your contribution to her care when she was ill. I waited too long and now your gone. I love you Jim. I'll miss you even more.

“ To the Hollis and McCray Families:

Sending our deepest sympathy in the loss of your son and brother. I am so sorry I was not able to be with you all during your time of berevement. My thoughts and prayers were with you all. I know right now there is only God who can and will give you all the strength you need to make it through this time of sorrow. God is able and He will comfort you all. I love you all and hope that in time you will be able to think about the good times you shared with Jimmy and let the love you all had for him bring joy to your hearts. Now, May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit bring peace, comfort and strength to all of you.

Love You,

“ Jimmie, I had no ideal that you would leave us so early. I knew there were days when you were weak and tired but you continued to take care of mom. You did not complain, you told me to be patient and not to take everything to heart, you said just overlook it all. I knew that you were right and I pray for strength everyday. I miss you! I did not imagine the heavy task that you were dealing with because you never complained. I know that we all have cares and problems we cannot solve alone, but if we go to God in prayer we are never on our own. You are with God now and I know that you are at peace and I am at peace knowing that. I saw the changes that you made and I am so proud of you. You conquered many task. You taught me to be strong, confident and God-fearing. I will carry on your memory in song and in faith that one day I will see you again. Kiss my Dad and sister for me. I know that you are watching from above. I know that God doesnt give us more than we can bear. Your crossing over has strengthen my heart and I will continue to hold on to God's unchanging hand. To the remaining family members, allow Jimmie's home going to be a reminder to all that we too must get our homes/affairs and our relationship with God in order. The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? I would have lost heart, unless I had believed that I would see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait on the Lord, be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, wait on the Lord. Your wait is over. I love you brother.
