My deepest condolences to the Parm family of 55 years. So many stories and memories from elementary school as children growing up with the Bonds, Parns ,Willis's, Manzies, Pruitts, Dunn's, Donaldson's and many more. It did take a village to raise a child. All of our parents collaborated and kept us a great neighborhood that shared, loved, and cared for one another. I loved that, and I appreciated all the love, and respect during that period in our lives!! May the good Lord bear your burdens, and hold you close. We all must prepare for that great getting up morning! As Mrs. Parm always preached, "Sister, Jesus is coming again. Prepare!" Rest in eternity, my dear play brother.
