“ To The McCall, Porter, & Shell families,

Mr. James and the late Mrs. Ollie, were our neighbors for as long as I can remember. Growing up, my sister RONALDA and I would run across the street to borrow sugar, play with the dogs, or spend the night whenever we wanted because they were family. After my father passed, we could always count on Mr. James to look out the window and check in on our mother as she would come and go.

The neighborhood is not the same, our street is not the same without his presence. Mr. James was a good man, a devout Christian, and a loyal friend. We love him and thank God for his life.

Family, please know that we are praying for your strength. Be comforted in knowing that the crown in glory that he lived for, he has now received.

God Bless.

“ My sincere prayers are with the Shell family. I remember we all attended Christmas Community church. Jamie, Vivian and I grew up together. Your father was a good Christian man and he really knew the Lord. He always had a beautiful smile and everyone knew he loved the Lord. Remember your father, brother, grandfather, great granddaughter will always be in your heart. God will see you through this time in your life.

“ *To the family of Mr. James Shell,
We are truly sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Shells. We were in the motor home club with him. He was a very mild manner and soft spoken person. May God bless and keep you all during this time of bereavement. Our prayers are with you.
