

James "Do-Wright" Davis, Jr.

December 5, 1945 - October 5, 2013

On the morning of October 5, 2013 at 2:35 a.m. at McLaren Oakland, MI, God said, "Come to me and rest". Mr. James "Do-Wright" Davis, Jr., our beloved son, father, grandfather, uncle and friend, went home to be with his Father. James was born December 5, 1945 in Louisville, MS to Sally and James Davis, Sr.

He married his beloved wife, Sylvia (Brown) Davis, on May 5, 1996 in Las Vegas, NV. To this union, a daughter was born.

James Davis, Jr., lovingly known as "Do-Wright", leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife, Sylvia Davis; six sons, James (Cheryl) Buriel and Dennis Buriel of Chicago, IL, Chad Davis and Andre (Patricia) Wood of Alabama, Anthony Shacks of Louisiana and Leon Brown; four daughters, Tara Davis and Shatara (Kenneth) Smithers of Grand Rapids, MI, Jynice Brown and Sally Davis of Denver, CO; 25 grandchildren; 5 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, many other relatives and friends, including a few special friends, Pete Simminton, Sam Winters "Snake", Marvin Rush "Redd Dogg" and Willie Buchan.

James was preceded in death by his parents, Sally and James Davis, Sr.; and a great-granddaughter, Zakiya Davis.

Family hour will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, October 16, 2013 at the Wolverine State Baptist Headquarters, 615 South Jefferson Avenue, with the funeral commencing at 12:00 noon. Pastor Johnie F. Edwards, Sr. will officiate with interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Friends may call at the church on Wednesday from 9:00 a.m. until time of service.

“Dad It so hard to except the fact that your not hear with us, but I wanna say that it bothers me everyday that I didn't get a chance to tell you that I love you while you was here with us, and my heart won't let me rest knowing I should have been there for you. But I know that your in a better place, and God doesn't make mistakes, I will truly miss the times where I would call you and talk with you, and I will miss the times when we would go up north with main, and have a lot of fun. I will miss calling you ole dude at the end of our conversation, But I thank God for you and all the things you shared with me when I was younger, you taught me a lot I my early 20's and I thank God that he choose you to be my Dad.

Dad I will truly miss you...

“ *To our classmate Sylvia Brown-Davis:
We the members of the SHS Class of 1975 extend our deepest sympathy to you and the entire Davis family in the loss of your husband, father, and grandfather - Mr. James Davis affectionally known also as "Do Right". We want you to know that we are praying your strength during the days ahead that you find comfort in knowing your loved one is resting in the arms of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning. Look to the hills from which comes all of your help...your help comes from the Lord.*

“ Dear Davis Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.
