

Janie L. Moore

September 15, 1930 - January 15, 2015

Janie Louise Moore was born on September 15, 1930 in Anderson County, South Carolina to Charlie Mack and Jennie Lou Latimer. She was the eldest of 15 children. Janie received her salvation at an early age in South Carolina.

After leaving South Carolina, Janie moved to Saginaw, Michigan where she married James Edward Moore. Five wonderful children were born to that union: three daughters, Peggy, Patricia (“Patty”) and Brenda, and two sons, Michael and David, both of whom preceded her in death.

Janie was employed with the Saginaw School Board before retiring after 30 years of service. Upon retiring from the school board, she volunteered with the Reading Program at Houghton School. “Granny”, as she was affectionately known to everyone, was a true “Leader in the Village”. While attending Zion Missionary Baptist Church, she served on the Mother’s Board, the Mission Board and the Missionary Choir. She was a part of the Good Neighbor’s Mission and an active member of the Church Women United organization. Presently, she attended Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church where she enjoyed attending many services and Bible study groups.

Janie truly loved her children and grandchildren. She could often be seen sitting on her front porch talking with family or neighbors and was known for her delicious cooking, especially her fried chicken, macaroni and cheese and 7-Up pound cakes.

Janie received her victory in the form of a new, heavenly body on January 15, 2015. She leaves to cherish her memory, three children, Peggy Moore-Thomas (Detroit, MI), Patricia (Gary) Fowlkes (Memphis, TN), and Brenda Moore (Saginaw, MI); special "son" (nephew), Ralph Martin (Saginaw, MI); her grandchildren, Facishon Moore (Memphis, TN), James Moore (Jackson, MI), Desmond Fowlkes (Memphis, TN), Michelle Smith (Baltimore, MD), Dee Dee (Brian) Nelson (Southfield, MI) and Shila (Antuoine) Dews (Baltimore, MD); and her great-grandchildren, Ruddie Moore (Memphis, TN), Landen Moore (Swartz Creek, MI), Samijah, Desmond Jr., and Trent Fowlkes (Memphis, TN), Erin Crawford (Saginaw, MI), and Destiny and Antuoine, Jr. Dews (Baltimore, MD). She also leaves to cherish her memory, her five sisters, Mamie Donald (Honea Path, SC), Sarah Alice Latimer (Atlanta, GA), Delphenia Latimer and Thelula (Harry) Coleman (Belton, SC), and Diane Latimer (Honea Path, SC); four brothers, Robert (Calvenia) Latimer (Charlotte, NC), Wilbert (Dearee) Latimer (Anderson, SC), Charles Latimer and Jimmy (Charlotte) Latimer (Belton, SC); and a host of many more family members, friends and loved ones.

Family hour will take place at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, January 21, 2015 at Corinthian Baptist Church, 104 South 10th Street, with the funeral commencing at 11:00 a.m. Pastor Roy L. Manning will officiate with interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Friends may call at the Evans & Browne's Funeral Home, 441 North Jefferson Avenue, on Tuesday from 2:00 until 8:00 p.m.

“ Brenda, my thoughts and prayers goes out to you and the family. I was deeply sadden when I heard the news. I am sorry I won't be able to be there for you. You know your mom was family. She would walk over to my mother's house many days to do her hair or my dad would go get her or take her home. She did that not because she needed the money, but because she was that kind considerate friend to my mom. We will miss your mom. She was loved and respected by the Surles family...

I pray that God continue to comfort and keep you as you bid your mom good-bye.

“ Janie didn't bite her words. She said what she meant and meant what she said. She was a no nonsense woman and shared plenty words of wisdom . She was tough but loving, direct but truthful. I am so blessed to have known this wonderful, out spoken, woman of integrity in my life and she will be sorely missed. To her children, grandchildren and family, she left a great legacy, Ephesians 6:10 "...be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might." and you'll never fail.

Much, much love,

“ I remember Janie from when I first came to Houghton school, everyone talked about her as though she was someone I should remember. I knew she had been important to all of the administration, educators, and students. Later I found out she had been past president of the PTA. What an encouragement she was to the education of young children... We have lost a friend and supporter today.

God be with each of you in your grief.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear about Mrs. Moore's passing. My heart goes out to my 9th Street sisters, Peggy, Patty and Brenda. I will always remember Mrs. Moore sitting on the porch, offering a wave and a smile to those who passed by. She was referenced in comments made at my Dad's funeral by Rev .Casey about how much things had changed when she was not able to walk in the neighborhood; because she was often seen walking.

She will be dearly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you, my sisters. Love , Thedie (Theonas) Barry
