JB I will miss you especially when I come home to Lansing. Because you always would cook for me no matter what anyone else would say. And the good thing about it you could "cook". Stephanie would always say when you cook you had to have the biggest pots in the kitchen to cook in, even when you was cooking just a little bit. We would laugh about that all the time. Stephanie would say watch him and sure enough you would get the biggest pots in the kitchen. But I didn't care because I knew when you finish it was going to be good It was a treat to have you as a brother-in law and you will truly be missed.

To the Browns family, Jerry was a happy soul, He was part of the Cannon family for as long as I can remember, when I come home from Atlanta I made sure I found Jerry so that I can hear some of his stories.... that he told. he would have me laughing all the way back to Atlanta. I'm gonna miss that when I come to town. Missing you already my brother. RIH, praying for your family.
