“ To My Beloved Cousins

My sympathy go out to you at your time of sorrow.

I know your mother/wife/sister/grandmother has left us. She was tired, there was a place prepared for her in her Fathers house at her Fathers throne. She was call upon by a higher power that needed her more.

I PERSONALLY remember when we was young our Auntie see Jessie coming I would actually laugh my self to a frenzy or go play cards with her. Auntie find out I snuck out of the house she would have a natural fit, believe me Jessie enjoy her life, she's going to have you laughing. We seen our family often because everyone went to Aunties house and there was good memories that we would remember.

So I say to you my family from our family God we give the glory having Jessie in our life even it was a short time. You are my family and there nothing stronger then a family bond at this time of sorrow. Time is going to be hard and slow at the beginning , but remember the love and memories you have for her will never die.
