Jimmie loved to cook and share her meals with family and friends. On Saturdays she would prepare her meals for Sunday. All over the church they would ask what did you cook today? She is known for her famous "Peanut Brittle and Dressing".

She leaves to cherish her memory, devoted husband Samuel David Logan, Sr.; her two children, Vandetta Yolinda Logan and Samuel David Logan, Jr. (Myra Turner); step-daughter, Jolie Armstrong Sneed; granddaughter, Hailey Michelle Logan; nieces, Wendy Crowell, Midland, GA, Sonja Logan, Atlanta, GA, Kimberly Bailey, McKinney, TX, Natalie Logan-Sharp, Benton Harbor, MI and Hilda Calhoun, Atlanta, GA; aunts, Mrs. Joyce Gosha, Midland, GA and Christine Gosha, Phenix City, AL; sisters-in-law, Vivian Logan, Dublin, GA, Eudora Logan, McKinney, TX; god-daughter, Ashley King; special friends, Dorothy House, Barbara Brown, Helen Owens, Faye McKinney, Lucy Smith, Laura Turner, Lubertha Brown, Beatrice Hannah, Phyllis Little, Edward Nesbitt, Dot Perry, Linda Weaver, Loistene Johnson, Lester and Laquita Booth and LaShawndra Logan.

In life we don't know why our paths cross, but God knows. Jimmie and my mom were deacon wives and their friendship began, which lasted until her death. Those years of knowing and talking to Jimmie will all be precious memories to me. RIH Mrs. Logan.

“ For anyone who had her as a teacher, you already knew what was going down. She was straight to the point. She will always be a light and inspiration the hard way(LOL). I remember when we buried my foster mom several years ago, she looked at me and said, you have always been the prettiest chunkie little girl and very smart. Keep being you. And of course, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. McAfee was not to far in tow and all laughing together. If you went to Central, you knew who ran the school. Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. McAfee, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Strawter and Mrs. Marsh. You could see them all in the various corners of the building so you were no getting in trouble.

She definitely will be missed. Prayers to you the family but know she made an impact.

“ I remember Mrs. Logan from Central jr. High, she was that teacher at first when you met her you thought she was mean, but once you got to know her, you find that she wasn't, and that she was caring, she told it like it was, tried to school you on life as well as education, and she was a real cool down to earth lady. She didn't play, she demanded her respect and got it.

I loved seeing her when I did. A job well done Mrs. Logan
