“ I have had the pleasure of knowing john since Jr High school. John and Greg did everything together from being at each other houses everyday after school to always working my nerves instead of having 3 brothers I had 5 including Stacey Sanders. Love them all to death. When John came to my dad's funeral 2 years ago from Atlanta that's when I realized how much love john had, had for our family and how much we had for him. John we are going to miss you so very much may god be with you and your family in there time of need. I know at this time nothing is making since but TIME WILL HEAL YOUR HEARTS..

“ To the Jones family, my prayers are with you during this difficult time of sorrow. I went to school with John from Jr. high and half of high. John was a very funny loving person always had some type of joke to tell. He will never be forgotten. God always has another plan for us and we never ask why but we know that John is resting in a better place and that is with our heavenly father. Stay strong and keep God in your life and he will see you through. God Bless.

I just want you to keep looking up and continue praying because I am praying with you. I am so sorry to hear about your lost. Yes, John was a wonderful person and we ask ourselves, why? But it will get better as time pastes on. As you know I lost my mother too. She is still with me today and it's better knowing she's here with me. So, cuz hang on to God's changing hand. I pray may the peace of God be with you Kelly.

“ To the Jones Family let me say that I share in your loss of John. He was a funny and wonderful man to be around. I enjoyed having him as a friend and classmate. When we needed a laugh or help John was there. To Kelly and the kids know that we are here for you no matter what you need. We are here to help you. Kelly be strong and watch over those handsome boys. Boys take care of your Mom. Pray to God every night and John will hear your prayers too.
