“ I didn't know John, but I wish to send my deepest condolences to your family during this time of grief. I understand how difficult it is to lose someone you love, for I have lost several friends and family members over the years. Yet, there's something that brings me comfort that I wanted to share with you.

I'm sure the one thing you want most is to be able to see John again. This is no mere dream, for the Bible promises a time when we will be reunited with our loved ones. At John 5:28, 29 Jesus said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, soon you will have the chance to welcome John back in perfect health to a beautiful new paradise earth. What an exciting time that will be!

Right now the pain of death grieves us all. We look forward to the time when it will be a thing of the past and God will "swallow up death forever." (Isaiah 25:8) As we await that time, may we continue to make sure we are doing what we need to in order to be there to welcome back our loved ones. (John 17:3) May you find much comfort in the Bible's promises. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family during this difficult time.
