I remember your dad fondly, He was your support through your earlier bowling years and I imagine that did not change as you got older. Our hearts go out to all the family who will surely miss him. But God has prepared a place for him and he will grant you peace.

My sympathy goes out to the Wade family. John was one of the high school students i looked up to when I was a little boy. He always had time to talk with me I know your mother Alice and father John are rejoicing with you in Heaven. May you rest in God's peace.
