

Mother Johnnie Mae Burt

July 6, 1928 - March 28, 2024

With hearts filled with gratitude for a life well lived, the family of Mother Johnnie Mae Burt announced her transition surrounded by her family on Thursday, March 28, 2024. Johnnie Mae Calhoun was born in Thompson Alabama, on July 6, 1928, to the late James Henry and Effie B. Calhoun. The daughter of a Deacon, and Church Mother, Johnnie Mae's hands were filled as a youngster as she helped to raise 7 younger brothers and 1 sister.

She attended school at the Thompson/Carver School system in Union Springs Alabama, where she graduated from high school. Mother Burt relocated to Saginaw, Michigan in the early 1950's to be with 2 of her brothers, the late Samuel Calhoun, and the late Pastor Nathaniel Calhoun.

She joined Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church and was a member for many years serving in the Missionary Department. She later became a member of The Church of the Lord Jesus Christ of the Apostolic Faith Philadelphia, PA, Bishop Kenneth "Omega" Shelton, Pastor and General Overseer. Mother Burt served faithfully until her transition. She was the Women's Supervisor for the Saginaw Church for over 30 years, and the chairlady for the "Little Flock", teaching the little ones to learn bible verses, recite the books of the bible, teaching them songs of praise, how to testify, and the importance of financially giving to the Lord. Most importantly she taught them about salvation & accepting Jesus as their Lord and Savior. Post Pandemic she served wherever needed.

Mother Burt attended Delta College, receiving her Liberal Arts Degree in 1977. She went on to attend Saginaw Valley State University where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree in 1981, majoring in social work and a minor in Sociology. Mother Burt was recognized as the Business Art Theatre Sociology awardee (BATS). At the age of 95, she was still passionately a Cardinal, very proud of her SVSU alumni status and had a strong Cardinal social work spirit of loving and caring about those around her. In 2003 during her 75th Birthday Celebration, Mayor Wilmer Ham McZee proclaimed July 6, as Mother Johnnie Mae Burt Day and presented her with the keys to the city of Saginaw.

To carry on her legacy and to cherish her memory, Mother Burt is survived by six daughters, Barbara Williams-Sane, Gwendolyn Sims, Carolyn Hulett, Janice Baldrige (Ralph Donald), Delores (Roy) Walker, of Saginaw, Michigan; J. “ To my extended family of Mother Johnnie Mae Burt. I cherish the eleven years that we resided in the same building. Mother Burt and my mother has been friends since the early fifties. Mother Burt was an inspiration to everyone she met. She surely loved and worshiped God. She was always so positive and had an uplifting spirit. She said she was always ready for God to call her home. Her children was by her side 24/7 and always showed her the upmost respect. Mother Burt was loved so dearly by the residents in the building and will truly be missed. The entire family has my prayers and I thank you for sharing your mother with me. ❤️
